

2010 North San Joaquin Valley Almond Day

Sponsored by the University of California Cooperative Extension

January 28, 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon

Stanislaus County Agricultural Center
Service and Crows Landing Roads, Modesto

1.5 Hours of Continuing Education Credit Pending

3.0 Hours of CCA hours pending

8:00 Registration

8:30 Program Begins.

- Evaluation of fungicides and commercial bloom-applied materials for effects on almond set & yield
 - Roger Duncan, UCCE Farm Advisor, Stanislaus County
- Evaluation of various zinc products for the most efficient zinc fertility program
 - Dr. Scott Johnson, UCCE Pomology Specialist, UC Kearney Ag Center
- New Information on Navel Orangeworm Management
 - Dr. Frank Zalom, Professor / Extension Entomologist, UC Davis
- Rootstock Selection for Salinity Management
 - David Doll, UCCE Farm Advisor, Merced County
- Update on Lower Limb Dieback of Almond
 - Dr. Bruce Lampinen, UCCE Pomology Specialist
- Irrigation 101: When, How Much and How Often Should I Irrigate?
 - Blake Sanden, UCCE Soils & Water Farm Advisor, Kern County

12:00 Adjourn